{Sommelier Selections by the Glass}

Jean Marc Pillot chardonnay rully, FR 2022.....	$23
Jean-Marc's friend's parcel in Les Raclots is 60 years old, planted in the appellation's classic clay-limestone terrain.
Donkey & Goat 'Stone Crusher' roussanne el dorado, CA 2016.....	$18
With a very small amount of skin contact, this orange-hued wine practically bursts with bright aromas and flavors of apricot, orange zest, heather and marmalade, while a light body, tangy acidity and a touch of tannin gives it a pleasant palate-cleansing effect.
Jean Foillard 'Côte du Py' gamay morgon, FR 2022.....	$29
Jean and Agnès Foillard took over his father's domaine in 1980. Most of their vineyards are planted on the Côte du Py, the famed slope outside the town of Villié-Morgon and the pride of Morgon. These granite and schist soils sit on an alluvial fan at the highest point above the town and impart great complexity. Its rustic structure, spicy notes, and mineral-laden backbone are what real Morgon is all about.
Luigi Ferrando nebbiolo carema, IT 2018.....	$40
The Ferrandos painstakingly cultivate their Nebbiolo vineyards on the mountainside terroir of Carema, in an amphitheater that sits in the very shadows of Monte Bianco. The resulting wine is very different than its more famous cousins from Barolo or Barbaresco and is sought after by connoisseurs for its finesse, complexity, and longevity.
Ridge 'Monte bello' cabernet sauvignon santa cruz mountains, CA 2019.....	$50 (half glass)
Originally a pure Cabernet wine, Monte bello cemented its rank among California wine royalty when the 1971 vintage beat top Bordeaux in the now-famous 1976 Judgement of Paris tasting. Monte Bello is made high up in the Santa Cruz mountains at up to 850 metres above sea level.
