{Sommelier Selections by the Glass}
7th Birthday Edition

Domaine du Pelican	jura, FR 2018	$30
--------------------	---------------	------

{Chardonnay}
Domaine du Pelican started only 13 years ago but has since achieved legendary status among the ranks of the Jura. This undeniably has to do with the fact that the estate is owned by Guillaume d'Angerville and Francois Duvivier of Domaine Marquis d'Angerville, one of the world's best Burgundy producers. Guillaume started this endeavor after a blind tasting in which he mistook Stéphane Tissot's Chardonnay from Arbois for a Meursault. He was immediately hooked and purchased 5 hectares of vines in Arbois. Two years later, in 2014, Jacques Puffeney (another Jura icon) announced his retirement and sold his Biodynamically-farmed vines to Guillaume. The now-15 hectares, meticulously farmed without a single chemical, are planted to Chardonnay, Savagnin, Pinot Noir, Trousseau, and Poulsard. This 2018 Chardonnay is complex and textured, with stone fruit, flinty minerality, and vibrant acidity shaping its palate. A real treat.

Cordero di Montezemolo	monfalletto, Barolo, IT 2018	$45

{Nebbiolo}
Located in La Morra, one of the most renowned Barolo villages. For 19 generations now, the Cordero di Montezemolo family has presided over a historic parcel that Antonio Galloni called "one of the most picturesque properties in all of Piedmont." Sourced from EU-certified organic vineyards, with vines ranging from 15 to 50 years in age, the Monfalletto estate vineyards is a masterclass in varietal expression. On the nose, a graceful medley of wild red berries, red rose petal, and a delicate whisper of spice. Full and warm on the palate, it's harmonious and persistent, with a firm tannic structure.

Château Gloria	saint-julien, Bordeaux, FR 2018	$40
----------------	---------------------------------	------

{60% Cabernet Sauvignon + 32% Merlot + 5% Petit Verdot + 3% Cabernet Franc}
Created in the 1950s by the legendary Henri Martin, the former régisseur of the iconic Château Latour. The 2018 vintage of Château Gloria is a standout expression of Saint-Julien terroir, offering aromas of dark berries, cedar, and violets with subtle hints of spice. On the palate, it is full-bodied yet refined, with a silky texture and well-integrated tannins. Aged 14 months in 40% new French oak, it shows excellent balance between richness and freshness, delivering a long, elegant finish that reflects the classic structure and charm of Left Bank Bordeaux.
